MONTROSE COUNTY, Colo. (KKCO)_Montrose could suspend the County's residential growth impact fees. i

On Monday, the Commissioners will discuss the latest proposal created to offset the declining real estate market.

The fee suspension would have no impact on the County's budget because no projects have been budgeted out of the Impact Fee Fund.

The public is encouraged to share their opinion on the matter at Monday's board meeting. The meeting will be held at the Administration Building located at 161 S. Townsend Ave. at 9:00am
